

Sayapatri Tenth Anniversary Night! A Night to Remember!!

For its historical milestone of 10 years, Sayapatri Nepali Cultural Group, UK is organising an event at the heart of Aldershot to celebrate its hard fought 10 years. Started with only 4 members in 2006, the group has acquainted its presence in the Nepalese community through various cultural programs, dance and shows. Since through various hardship and painstakingly taking the effort, the group has successfully established its core value in the preservation and promotion of Nepali tradition and culture and also works with various organisations across UK and Nepal to adhere its ambition of becoming one of the leading Nepalese organisations in the UK.

Sayapatri Tenth Anniversary Night is special for many occasions. From its hard fought battleship in the Nepalese community to the formal growing fan base organisation, the night offers both mixture of both experiences. For the vibrant success and a night to remember, Sayapatri Group is bringing mixture of social events and programmes in the stage. The event will comprise of children dance, traditional folk dance, folk song, live music and other new talents. National artists including Anjana Gurung and local artists will be hitting the stage of the event.

To celebrate its achievement, the group has requested all organisations, Nepalese community, media and all individuals to participate and enjoy the vivid moments with Sayapatri Tenth Anniversary Night. For the events, the minimal entry ticket is £10 and children under 10 will have free access. There is also provision for VIP tickets for £25 which includes free meal. Sponsors who want to sponsor the event can also get free access and meal to the event. Tickets can be easily purchased by contacting the Group or at the entrance gate. For the first time, the group has also printed the t-shirt representing Group. Members interested can easily buy their size at £7.

